Care . Comfort . Compassion . Choice

Hospice & Palliative CareCenter

Celebrating 30 Years of Compassionate Care

It all began over 30 years ago when a few individuals with a shared passion gathered on a back porch in Winston-Salem. That passion was to find a way to improve the way people die. That's when the idea of hospice was first considered in North Carolina.

Those dedicated individuals knew that most people, given a choice, would prefer to die at home - surrounded by family, with dignity, peace, and as comfortable as possible. That passion for compassionate end of life care continues today.

“the back porch gang”

In the mystery of what will be,
there is one place dedicated to helping what still is,
one place that reminds me
there is meaning in it all,
so it is my duty to pledge
as much support as I can,
it is my honor.

Welcome

Choosing Hospice does not mean giving up hope.

It's letting HOPE in.
